LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Duebber not to be trusted

Last time I looked up the word "trustee," it meant one to whom something is entrusted.

It has become painfully obvious that Trustee Al Duebber can't be trusted to look out for the best interests of Delhi residents.

Duebber seems to have negotiated the best deal possible for the Delhi Pike McDonald's and not the struggling Delhi taxpayer.

Trustee does it again

I couldn't believe my eyes and ears.

During the April 29 meeting of the Delhi board of trustees, discussion took place regarding negotiations with McDonald's.

Trustee Al Duebber took the opportunity to deny accusations in a letter from Kevin Rhodes that Duebber sided with McDonald's on issues of importance to the township, then took the next five minutes to defend McDonald's.

It's pretty clear that Al Duebber doesn't represent us.

endorse a candidate to run for Delhi Trustee. It was no surprise to hear Al Duebber was supporting Mary Brigham. Not only was this Brigham's second meeting she has attended in years, she had the nerve to not answer the question: "If you don't get the Republican endorsement will you run as an independent?" Mary Brigham is nothing more than a "rubber stamp" for Al Duebber to get his way and continue his assault on the taxpayers of Delhi. I just want to make sure all voters are made aware of the back door dealings of Duebber so when you go to the polls this fall, it is with an informative vote.
